It is important to remember that the internet is a fantastic resource and creates a plethora of opportunities for both adults and young people.

The internet reflects behaviour in the real world; however users tend to feel less inhibited when online.

Young people often UNKNOWINGLY SHARE PERSONAL INFORMATION ONLINE

IF YOU ARE BEING CYBERBULLIED:

Some people use technology to bully others. This is not right and if you are aware that someone is being cyberbullied, it is your duty to report it.

CYBERBULLYING

- ★ SAVE any abusive texts, emails or other evidence.
- ★ DO NOT RESPOND TO OR CONFRONT THE BULLY; if they get a reaction from you it may encourage them.
- ★ TELL AN ADULT YOU TRUST and they will be able to help make it stop.
- ★ For HELP AND ADVICE AROUND CYBERBULLYING visit: www.cybermentors.org.uk

Imagine if someone wanted to find you or learn stuff about you to bully you. Would the information on your profile make this pretty easy? Your personal information may be more public than you think ...

★ SET YOUR PRIVACY SETTINGS TO 'PRIVATE' so only people you accept as friends can view your profile.

★ Only upload photos you'd be happy to show a stranger, your mum or a future employer, YOU NEVER KNOW WHERE IT MAY END UP.

★ THINK ABOUT WHETHER YOU'RE GIVING SOMEONE 'CLUES' to finding you, before you write stuff on your profile.

★ Add the FACEBOOK 'CLICKCEOP' APP - www.facebook.com/clickceop

Chatting to friends on sites like Facebook or Myspace is really cool, but how much information does your profile give away about you?

WHAT'S ON YOUR PROFILE?

- ★ FULL NAME
- ★ HOME ADDRESS
- ★ MOBILE NUMBER
- ★ PHOTOS OF YOU
- ★ SCHOOL NAME
- ★ WHERE YOU'RE GOING ON SATURDAY
