It could be non-fiction, historical works, newspapers, or online material, but then ask them to assess it as a source using their skills. Students can also make use of the collection of books in both the school and department libraries. • Encourage students to ask their teachers for examples of further reading for the topics they are studying. • Visit historic sites/museums/online displays. • Historic sites and museums also have useful resources on their websites. • Watch historical documentaries and programmes together. • Encourage students to plan examination questions at home. • You are able to complete further independent research on Coalbrookdale by visiting this website: Coalbrookdale Museum of Iron – The Ironbridge Gorge Museums • Students are able to access podcasts on the BBC about Elizabethan England, such as: Elizabethan Subjects - Puritans - BBC Sounds • Students are also able to access mini-documentaries from BBC Teach on Youtube such as: What was life like for the rural poor in Elizabethan England? History - Elizabethan England - YouTube
