

Teacher of English

We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic and ambitious English teacher to join a successful, supportive, and committed team of subject specialists. Candidates for the post should have a relevant degree, exhibit a passion for teaching and be able to deliver high quality, engaging lessons. The successful candidate will be committed to the highest quality of teaching, learning and assessment, will enjoy working as part of a team and will have a key role in ensuring the best possible outcomes for our students.

English Language and English Literature are an integral part of the curriculum at Thomas Telford School and all students study both subjects from Year 7 to Year 11. We also offer English Literature and English language A Level courses, and there are opportunities to teach either, dependent on experience or qualifications. In addition, we are keen to provide enrichment opportunities for students, and we welcome applications from candidates with a willingness to contribute to our broader curriculum.

Thomas Telford School sets high standards for students and staff and working conditions are excellent. The English Department use a wide range of resources to support teaching, including interactive whiteboards and a fully resourced online curriculum. Sharing of good practice is fundamental to our teaching approach and we plan lessons collaboratively. The English teaching staff work together to secure the best possible outcomes for our learners, and we offer students extra support and practice during timetabled enrichment sessions.

Thomas Telford School has an excellent reputation for achieving outstanding results. New staff are supported and mentored, and targeted professional development opportunities are available. The successful candidate will have a genuine desire to build on the strengths and successes of the English Department and be committed to curriculum and professional development. This position is an ideal opportunity for an excellent classroom practitioner to make a significant contribution to developments within the English Department at Thomas Telford School. There are excellent opportunities for career progression available to the right candidate.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require further information or would like to make a preliminary visit to the school.

I look forward to receiving your application,

Miss Alice Couzens
Director of English
